Buchey became excited and exasperated.

The first shot was not fatal, and the young lady turned to run, when the father fired another shot after her, which penetrated a vital part, killing her instantly.

Conscious of the terrible crime which he had committed, but frantic with excitement, the old gentleman rushed to the door, making a demonstration upon his own life with the same weapon which had been used against his daughter who

The Louisville Journal says:—
Mr. Buchey was between fifty and sixty years old, and he is represented to us as having been esteemed a perfect gentleman, unusually kind to his family, of considerable property, and of very respectable connections.

The Election of Mayors.

Mr. McKenzie a Bill to effect an alteration in the mode of electing the presing officers of City Councils, by delegating the power to elect to the people. Directly, having passed a second resolution by a very respectable majority, has the prospect of being placed on our statute books as one of the laws of the land. Although we have expressed ourselves adverse to increasing the number of elective officers by the people directly, chiefly because we believe them incompetent to discriminate between a deserving and in this case, one evil will be avoided, and

The following are its provisions:—

MAYORS, HOW TO BE ELECTED.

1. The Mayors of the said Cities shall, at the first day of January, 1858, be such as shall be elected in the manner hereinafter provided by the male inhabitants entitled to vote members of the Common Council of such ward shall, in addition to their votes for one candidate as Mayor if there be more than one candidate, as hereinafter provided.

2. Every qualified elector of members of Common Council shall be held to be qualified to be a candidate for and to hold the office of Mayor in each of said Cities.

3. On the first Monday in December next, and on the same day in every future year, the hour of ten in the forenoon, in the Court House, the City Clerk shall preside at a public meeting, at such place as shall be appointed by the Common Council, to which all the

them, may nominate as candidates for the office of Mayor, and the candidates then so nominated and duly qualified, and others, shall be eligible to be voted for and declared elected at the then next ensuing annual municipal election; and if there be only one such candidate, he shall be the Mayor elected.

4. All the provisions of law in force in said Cities in respect to the time and manner of notifying, holding, and conducting elections for Aldermen and Councillors, shall apply, as far as applicable, to the election of Mayors in said Cities respectively.

5. The Returning officer for each W shall deliver a statement and certificate to Common Council at their next meeting, on such election, of the votes polled for the several candidates, if there be more than one candidate for the office; whereupon the Common Council shall proceed to determine and declare who is duly elected to the office of Mayor; and in case there is more than one candidate, the candidate duly qualified having the greatest number of votes shall be declared duly elected; if there is only one duly qualified candidate he shall be declared Mayor; or, and if there be no such candidate the office shall be declared vacant and filled as hereinafter provided.

46: cil shall make a certificate of their determination

6. The Mayors elected in pursuance of this Act shall take the oath of office, and enter on the duties of their office as soon as they shall be declared elected and shall have taken the oath of office, and shall hold their office for one year, and until a successor be elected and take his oath of office, and shall have the same powers and duties as the Mayors of Chicago now have by law.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, particularly along the edges. The page is framed by dark borders on the left and right sides, suggesting it is part of a bound volume. There is no text or other markings on the page.
